

Angel Little
Austell, Georgia 30106
melvinbigstar@aol.com

Personal and Professional Information

Jacqueline L. “Angel” Little is a native of Lawton, Ok. Angel as she is affectionately called is a graduate of Cameron University. She is married to Ret. Lieutenant Colonel Melvin Little. They have two daughters.

PTA Involvement

Current service includes:

Angel has been involved in PTA for over 20 years; she has served on the National PTA Election Committee, she is currently the Georgia PTA First Vice President. Her other involvements include GA PTA Governance Structure committee member, Legislative committee member, Membership committee, Early Childhood and College and Career Readiness Initiative Communications Chair.

Previous service includes:

Angel is the immediate past chair for Family Engagement. She serves on the State Advisory Panel with the Department of Education (SAP) for Special Needs students. Angel has served in the capacity as a local President, SCC Membership Chair, SCC 1st Vice President, Secretary, Parent Involvement Chair, Georgia PTA By-laws Committee member. She is a past 1st Vice President of South Cobb High School PTSA and South Cobb Council President. Angel has served as a member of the steering committee to the Georgia Family Engagement Conference Planning Committee 2012 and 2014.

Community Involvement

Current service includes:

Mrs. Little is a member at First AME Church where she serves as Christian Education Director, recently elected as the Atlanta North Georgia Conference Women’s Missionary Society 1st Vice President, 1st Vice President of the local Women’s Missionary Society, Angel was recognized as Missionary of the year on November 7, 2015. She also is a member of the Spiritual Voices Choir. Mrs. Little is the past North Area Young People’s Division Director where she served nine years. She is the immediate past West Area WMS Chairperson, which covers 24 churches in the Metro Atlanta Area.

If you want to get something done ask a person who is committed and dependable and Angel is certainly both. To sum it up Angel is an advocate for children. She is also a part time substitute teacher for Cobb County and Co- founder of Sister 2 Sister, for young females facilitating healthy lifestyles among young adolescents. Angel received a certificate of completion for Training the Trainer in Urban Initiatives. Angel works with Boy Scouts of America and Girl Scouts of Greater Atlanta.

Angel is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., Phi Kappa Delta (Honorary Speech Organization), where her Debate team for 1979, was honored at the Alumni Homecoming activities in Lawton, Oklahoma in February 2016, a member of the NAACP, and Who's Who Among Community Leaders, and recently received the Legacy Of Service Award (Silver for over 25 years of service) for her work with the Women's Missionary Society of the African Methodist Episcopal Church. Angel is a recipient of the Georgia PTA Honorary Life Achievement Award.